Spot Forecast for LINDSEY LAKE TANKER SPILL - I-84 AT MP 54...OREGON DEQ/USEPA
National Weather Service Portland OR 800 AM PST Fri Mar 1 2019

Forecast is based on forecast start time of 0800 PST on March 01.
If conditions become unrepresentative...contact the National Weather Service Portland, Oregon office.

.DISCUSSION...Low pressure offshore will continue to spin a few showers over the area today, but as it drops south and falls apart, we will see any chance for showers come to an end this evening. Temperatures will drop back down below freezing tonight. East winds will start to increase through the west end of the Columbia Gorge on Saturday morning as high pressure builds into the Columbia Basin. Expect east winds to persist through early next week, with dry weather. Next chance for precipitation will be on Tuesday, likely falling as snow in the Columbia Gorge.

.REST OF TODAY...

Sky/weather.....Mostly cloudy. A chance of snow early morning, then decreasing chance of showers with a mix of rain and snow in the afternoon.

Chance of pcpn.....30 percent.
